Dear Jack:

Having just returned from my farewell calls in Europe, I found your thoughtful and supportive letter of 16 February on my desk. It was good of you to recall those marvelous days in Highland Park, and I am particularly sorry to hear about the loss of your parents.

You may be sure that I am looking forward to the challenge that lies ahead. Certainly no two days will be alike, and I fully expect there will be moments when I would like to join you down on that farm of yours.

Thank you for writing.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER,
Admiral, U.S. Navy

Mr. John W. Lanigan
